1.2 Deduct each month fees from the wage of a bargaining unit employee who has authorized in writing such deductions; and

1.3 Remit monthly such deductions to the appropriate designated officer of the Union with a list of the names of the employees from whose wages deductions were made; and

1.4 The Union shall certify to the Employer, in writing, the current amount of regular dues to be withheld.

Section 2. The Union agrees to represent all members of the units fairly and without discrimination.

Section 3. The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders or judgments including attorney's fees brought or issued against the Employer as a result of any action taken or not taken by the Employer under the provisions of this Article.

Section 4. The Union may designate certain employees from the bargaining unit to act as stewards and shall certify to the Employer, in writing, of such choice and the designation of the successors to former stewards. The Union shall also certify to the Employer a complete and current list of its officers and representative(s).

4.1 The Employer agrees to recognize stewards certified by the Union as provided in this Section, subject to the following: Stewards and other employee Union officers shall not leave their work stations without prior permission of their designated supervisor(s) and they shall notify their designated supervisor(s) upon return to their work stations. Permission to leave a work station for Union business will be limited to the investigation and presentation of grievances to the Employer. No more than one (1) steward shall on paid time investigate or present a grievance.

- 4.2 Non-employee representatives of the Union, previously certified to the Employer as provided herein, shall be permitted to come on the premises of the Employer for the purpose of investigating and discussing grievances if they first notify and receive approval from the Employee's Department Manager and provided the Union representatives do not interfere with the work of employees. The Union agrees there shall be no solicitation for membership, signing up of members, collection of initiation fees, dues, fines or assessments, meetings or other Union activities on the Employer's time. The Union shall not use the Employer's premises or facilities for Union business without prior approval of the Employer.
- 4.3 The Employer agrees to allow the Union to use designated bulletin boards for the purpose of posting notices of Union meetings, Union elections, Union election returns, Union appointments to office, and Union recreational or social affairs, and any other items specifically approved by the Employer. The Union agrees to limit the posting of such notices to the bulletin board space designated by the Employer. It is specifically understood that no notices of a political or inflammatory nature shall be posted.
- 4.4 The Employer agrees to provide information regarding job classification, FLSA status and DBM level on the County's external website for informational purposes only.

ARTICLE 5. EMPLOYER AUTHORITY

- Section 1. It is recognized by both parties that except as expressly stated herein, the Employer shall retain whatever right and authority necessary for it to operate but not limited to, the right to direct the working forces; to plan, direct and control all the operations and services of the department; to determine the method, means, organization and number of personnel by which such operations and services are to be conducted; to assign and transfer employees; to schedule working hours and to assign overtime; to determine whether goods or services should be made, purchased or contracted out for; to hire, promote or relieve employees; to demote, suspend, discipline or discharge for just cause; to make and enforce rules and regulations which are not in conflict with this Agreement; and to change or eliminate existing methods, equipment or facilities. It is also recognized by both parties that the Employer shall retain the authority and prerogatives to:
- a. Operate and manage its affairs in all respects in accordance with existing and future laws and regulations of appropriate authorities, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, and to establish such work rules as do not conflict with the provisions contained in this Agreement.
 - b. Maintain the efficiency of the government operations; and
 - c. Take whatever actions may be necessary to carry out the missions of the Employer in emergencies.

A reference in this Agreement to state or federal law will not be deemed to incorporate the referenced law into this Agreement.

Section 2. The Employer retains all rights and privileges not specifically addressed or modified by this Agreement.

Section 3. The Employer agrees to apply the terms of this Agreement to all members of the units fairly and without discrimination.

ARTICLE 6. SENIORITY

Section 1. Seniority:

1.1 The Employer shall establish and post separate seniority lists for permanent full-time and permanent part-time employees by January 31 each year. Seniority lists shall include County, Union and Classification seniority dates. Ties in seniority shall be broken prior to posting.

1.2 There shall be three (3) types of seniority established on each seniority list as follows:

1.2.1 County Seniority: which shall be the total length of continuous service with the County, which is primarily used for the calculation of benefits.

1.2.2 Union Seniority: which shall be the total length of continuous service within the bargaining unit.

1.2.3 Classification Seniority: which shall be the total length of continuous service within a work classification.

1.3 Seniority After Organizational Changes:

1.3.1 When an employee's job title changes and their duties remain essentially the same, the employee shall maintain classification seniority based on the combined time in the two job titles.

1.3.2 In the case of any reorganization and/or re-structuring resulting in the merging or renaming of a department or division, an employee shall maintain seniority based on the combined length of service in the previously and currently named departments or divisions.

1.4 Breaks in Seniority: An employee's seniority shall be broken by voluntary resignation, discharge for just cause, or retirement.

1.5 Seniority Lists: The seniority list for full-time employees shall include the part-time employees whose continuous service commenced prior to January 1, 1992. Employees with budgeted FTE of 0.8 or greater shall be considered full-time as of January 1, 2010 and shall be placed in order of classification seniority at the bottom of the existing full-time seniority list. There shall be a separate seniority list of part-time employees (employees with budgeted FTE less than 0.8) by classification seniority.

- 1.6 Ties in Seniority: Ties in classification seniority shall be broken by Union Seniority. Ties in Union seniority shall be broken by County seniority. Ties in County seniority shall be broken by employee number, the employee with the lower number being deemed more senior.
- 1.7 Seniority List Challenge: Employees will have thirty (30) calendar days after the day of posting to challenge any data or seniority ranking contained in the posted seniority list. All such challenges will be submitted to the County Employee Relations Division in writing together with any supporting documentation. Timely challenges will be evaluated jointly by the County and the Union. Affected employees will be notified in writing of the County's decision. Affected employees who disagree with the County's decision may file a grievance which will be considered to automatically be at the arbitration level to be handled in an expedited manner. Upon conclusion of the challenge process, the seniority list will be final and binding on all employees and the County for purposes of any layoff.

Section 2. Except in those instances where senior employees are not qualified to perform remaining work, seniority shall determine the order of layoff and recall subject to the following provisions:

- 2.1 Layoff: Layoff shall be by classification within a Division, in inverse order of classification seniority, exhausting part-time seniority list prior to full-time seniority list. However, an employee about to be laid off, shall have the right to bump (displace) the employee with the least Union seniority in a previously held bargaining unit position of equal or lower pay grade as long as their classification seniority is greater than that of the person currently holding the position.
- 2.2 Pro-rata Reduction in Hours: A group of employees within a department may propose a plan of pro-rata reduction in hours in lieu of placing junior employees on layoff. Such a plan may be presented to the County for its consideration. Upon approval by the County the plan would be deemed to be an agreed upon exception to the provisions of this Article which the County would then implement.
- 2.3 Recall From Layoff: An employee's name shall be retained on the recall list for two (2) years, at which time all rights to recall shall terminate. Recall from layoff shall be by classification within a division, in inverse order of layoff. The individual will have three (3) days to accept or refuse an offer of employment. When an individual accepts a recall, their name shall be removed from the recall list. If an employee does not return to work upon recall, on the scheduled date as directed by the Employer, or an extended date mutually acceptable to the employee and Employer, the employee shall automatically have terminated their employment.

2.3.1 Recall to a Different Position: An individual on a recall list shall have first right of refusal for any vacancy at the same or lower DBM that they held at the time of layoff, within their bargaining unit, for which they possess the minimum qualifications. The first right of refusal shall be offered to these individuals on layoff in bargaining unit seniority order. The employee accepting such an offer shall serve a trial period in the new position during which time the supervisor and employee may assess the fit for the position. If either party determines that it is not a good fit, the employee shall be returned to the recall list for the duration of their original layoff period. The recall period is not extended by an employee accepting a position and returning to the recall list. Once an employee accepts a recall position, either with fewer hours than the position from which they were laid off, or at a lower grade, rather than returning to their “lay-off” classification, the employer is not required to offer them additional positions. An employee in such a situation will, however, remain on the recall list for their “lay-off” classification or pre-lay-off hours for the duration of their recall period. An employee in this situation is also eligible to apply for or request a transfer to an open position.

If an individual on the recall list refuses such an opportunity, they shall remain on the recall list for the duration of their recall period.

2.3.2 Recall to Fewer Hours: If an employee is recalled to a position with fewer assigned hours than the position from which the employee was placed on layoff status, then the employee may reject the recall and remain in layoff status with recall rights continuing for the balance of the two (2) year time period.

2.3.3 Recall to Greater Hours: If an employee is recalled to a position with greater assigned hours than the position from which the employee was placed on layoff status, then the employee may reject the recall and remain in layoff status with recall rights continuing for the balance of the two (2) year time period.

- 2.4 The Employer shall issue written notice ten (10) calendar days in advance of layoff or recall from layoff to affected employees. Recall notification shall be by registered or certified mail to the employee’s last known address. It shall be the responsibility of each employee on layoff to inform the Employer of any address change.
- 2.5 Emergency, provisional and limited term employees in the same classification and department shall precede permanent employees in layoff. No new employees shall be hired in a work classification and department where there are employees on layoff status until all laid off employees have been recalled in accordance with the above.
- 2.6 Employees in layoff status will have a right of first refusal to substitute for an incumbent who is on a leave of absence approved by the County, provided the employee meets minimum requirements to perform the duties of the position held by the employee who is on an approved leave of absence. The employee in layoff status may accept or reject the substitute duties without jeopardizing recall rights. Acceptance of the substitute duties does not constitute a recall. Upon completion of the substitute duties, the employee will not be entitled to any notice of procedures whatsoever.

2.7 Seniority During Layoff: Employees will retain the seniority they accrued prior to layoff, but shall not accrue additional seniority during the time they are on layoff status.

2.8. Upon recall from lay-off, an employee's leave accrual rate shall be restored to the rate immediately prior to the lay-off. Upon recall from lay-off, an employee's leave balance(s) shall be restored to the level(s) immediately prior to layoff, reduced by any severance payout resulting from the layoff.

Section 3. Whenever possible, vacant or newly created positions shall be filled by transfer or promotion from among the present employees. When all other qualifications are equal, the Employer shall select the applicant with the greater County seniority for the job posting. If it becomes necessary in making a promotion or transfer to bypass an employee's seniority, reasons for said denial shall be given in writing to such employee. Positions with the incumbents which are reclassified shall not be considered vacant or newly created.

3.1 When recruiting to fill a vacant position, the Employer shall interview the most highly ranked, qualified bargaining unit member for a vacancy within the bargaining unit.

Section 4. For a period of five (5) days prior to filling such vacant or newly created bargaining unit position, the Employer shall post in a conspicuous public place at each work site notice of all vacant or newly created bargaining unit positions to be filled. Such notices shall state the type of work, the place of work, the rate of pay, normal hours to be worked, and the job classification.

ARTICLE 7. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1. Definition of a Grievance: A grievance is defined as a dispute or a disagreement as to the interpretation or application of the specific terms or conditions of this Agreement.

Section 2. Representatives: The Employer will recognize representatives of the bargaining unit having the duties and responsibilities established by this Article. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of such Union representatives and of their successors when so designated.

Section 3. Processing of a Grievance: It is recognized and accepted by the Employer and the Union that the processing of grievances as hereinafter provided is limited by the job duties and responsibilities of the employees and shall therefore be accomplished during normal working hours only when consistent with such employee duties and responsibilities. The aggrieved employee and the Union representative shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time without loss of pay when a grievance is investigated and presented to the County during normal working hours provided the employee and the Union representative have notified and received the approval of the Employer who has determined that such absence is reasonable and would not be detrimental to the work programs of the Employer.

Section 4. Procedure: Grievances, as defined by Section 1, shall be resolved in conformance with the following procedure:

- Step 1. An employee claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of this contract shall, within fifteen (15) days after the day such alleged violation has occurred, present such grievance in writing to the employee's immediate supervisor. The supervisor must be in receipt of the grievance on or before day fifteen (15). The supervisor will discuss and give an answer in writing to such Step 1 grievance within ten (10) days after receipt. If the grievance is not resolved based upon the supervisor's Step 1 answer, the grievance shall be placed in writing setting forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of the contract allegedly violated, and the remedy requested and shall be appealed to Step 2 within ten (10) days after the supervisor's final answer in Step 1. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 2 by the Union within ten (10) days shall be considered waived.
- Step 2. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the Union and discussed with the Division Director or his/her designee. The Division Director or his/her designee shall give the Union the Employer's Step 2 answer in writing within ten (10) days after receipt of such grievance. A grievance not resolved in Step 2 may be appealed to Step 3 within ten (10) days following the Division Director or his/her designee's final Step 2 answer. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 3 by the Union within ten (10) days shall be considered waived.
- Step 3. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the Union and discussed with the Employer-designated Step 3 representative. The Employer designated representative shall give the Union the Employer's answer in writing within ten (10) days after receipt of such Step 3 grievance. A grievance not resolved in Step 3 may be appealed to Step 4 within ten (10) days following the Employer-designated representative's final answer in Step 3. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 4 by the Union within ten (10) days shall be considered waived.
- Step 3A. Mediation: If the Employer and the Union mutually agree, a grievance unresolved in Step 3 may be submitted to the Minnesota Bureau of Mediation Services (BMS) for mediation within ten (10) days after receipt of the Employer-designated representative's final answer in Step 3. If the grievance is submitted to mediation and is resolved, the settlement shall be reduced to writing and signed by both the Employer and the Union. If the grievance is submitted to mediation and is not resolved, it may be appealed to Step 4 within ten (10) days of the date of the mediation meeting. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 4 by the Union within ten (10) days shall be considered waived.

- Step 4. A grievance unresolved in Step 3 and appealed to Step 4 shall be submitted to arbitration subject to the provisions of the Public Employment Labor Relations Act of 1971. Filing for arbitration must occur within ten days (10) of the receipt of the Employer's Step 3 response. Any grievance not appealed to arbitration within ten (10) days shall be considered waived. The selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances" as established by Bureau of Mediation Services (BMS). The Union must contact the Employer to select an arbitrator within (30) calendar days of the arbitration filing date or the grievance shall be considered waived. Notification/booking of the arbitrator may be extended by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.

Section 5. Arbitrator's Authority:

- A. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the Employer and the Union, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.
- B. The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within thirty (30) calendar days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the Employer and the Union and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this contract and to the facts of the grievance presented.
- C. The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings, the cost shall be shared equally.

Section 6. Waiver: If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived." If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.

Section 7. Choice of Remedy: If, as a result of the written Employer response in Step 3, the grievance remains unresolved, and if the grievance involves the suspension, demotion or discharge of an employee who has completed the required probationary period, the grievance may be appealed either to Step 4 of Section 4, or a procedure such as: Veterans Preference or Human Rights. If appealed to any procedure other than Step 4 of Section 4, the grievance is not subject to the arbitration procedure as provided in Step 4 of Section 4. The aggrieved employee shall indicate in writing which procedure is to be utilized Step 4 of Section 4, or another appeal procedure and shall sign a statement to the effect that the choice of any other hearing precludes the aggrieved employee from making a subsequent appeal through Step 4 of Section 4.

An employee pursuing a remedy pursuant to a statute under the jurisdiction of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission is not precluded from also pursuing an appeal under the grievance procedure of this Agreement. If a court of competent jurisdiction rules contrary to the ruling in EEOC v. Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities, 957 F.2d 424 (7th Cir.), cert. denied, 506 U.S. 906, 113 S. Ct. 299 (1992), or if Board of Governors is judicially or legislatively overruled, this paragraph of Section 7 shall be immediately null and void and shall be deleted from this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8. NO STRIKE/NO LOCK OUT

Section 1. Neither the Union, its officers or agents, nor any of the employees covered by this Agreement will engage in, encourage, sanction, support or suggest any strikes, slow-downs, mass absenteeism, sympathy strike, the willful absence from one's position, the stoppage of work or the abstinence in whole or in part of the full, faithful and proper performance of duties of employment for the purpose of inducing, influencing or coercing a change in the conditions or compensation of the rights, privileges or obligations of employment. In the event that any employee violates this Article, the Union, when aware of the event, shall immediately notify any such employee in writing to cease and desist from such action and shall instruct them to immediately return to their normal duties. Any or all employees who violate any of the provisions of this Article will be subject to discharge or other discipline.

Section 2. The Employer shall not lock out unit employees.

Section 3. The provisions of this Article shall only apply during the duration of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9. PROBATION AND TRIAL PERIODS

Section 1. All newly hired or rehired employees shall be probationary and shall serve a six (6) month probationary period. The probationary period may be extended at the discretion of the Employer for no more than three (3) additional months. An employee may use accrued PTO hours during such an extension, however if the employee is unsuccessful in completing the probationary period, the employee will not be eligible for payment of the accrued PTO hours upon separation from employment. The employee and the Union shall be notified of any extension and the reason(s) for the extension prior to the end of the initial probationary period. Probationary employees may use paid time off (PTO) during their probationary period.

Section 2. The Employer, at its sole discretion, may discipline or discharge a probationary employee, such action shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

Section 3. All employees promoted, recalled or transferred to a new position shall serve a six (6) month trial period. If an employee serving a probationary period as defined in Section 1 above receives a promotion or transfer, he/she shall first complete a six (6) month probationary period followed by a six (6) month trial period.

Section 4. The Employer may return a trial period employee to a position in his/her former classification and to his/her classification during the trial period and to his/her rate of pay immediately previous to transfer or promotion. This provision shall extend to an employee who promotes to a position in another bargaining unit.

Section 5. A trial period employee shall have, for the first four (4) months of the trial period, the right to revert to a position in his/her former classification, and to his/her rate of pay immediately previous to transfer or promotion. This provision shall extend to an employee who promotes to a position in another bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 10. WORK SCHEDULES – PREMIUM PAY AND OVERTIME

Section 1. This Article is intended only to define the normal hours of work and to provide the basis for the calculation of overtime pay and other premium pay. Nothing herein shall be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week.

Section 2. Work Week: The normal work week shall be forty (40) hours of work for full-time non-exempt employees. The normal work period for full-time exempt employees shall be eighty (80) hours in a two-week pay period. Exempt staff shall report only in whole hour increments. Normal work days shall be Monday through Friday, except for functions operated on a continuous shift basis or requiring departure from the normal schedule.

- Section 3. Work Day: The normal work day for full-time employees shall consist of eight (8) hours of work plus an unpaid meal period.
- Section 4. Work Shift: Work shifts, staffing schedules and the assignment of employees thereto shall be established by the Employer.
- Section 5. Work Schedule Changes: The Employer shall notify employees ten (10) work days in advance of any permanent changes in their work schedules.
- Section 6. Rest Breaks: Employees shall be granted two (2) paid fifteen (15) minute rest breaks per work shift, one (1) break toward the middle of each one-half (1/2) work shift, at times designated by the Employer when the Employer determines that such breaks will not materially interfere with the rendering of services.
- Section 7. Meal Period: An unpaid meal period shall be scheduled toward the middle of the work shift, at a time which the Employer determines does not interfere with the rendering of services.

8.7 Exempt Employees:

8.7.1 When the Employer creates a new classification or changes the job content of an existing classification, the Employer shall designate the position as exempt or non-exempt. The request may be made prior to the taking of forty (40) consecutive hours of PTO for payment with the last payroll prior to taking of the PTO or at any time within the same calendar year after the taking of forty (40) consecutive hours of PTO. If the cash-out is requested prior to the taking of the PTO, and the employee does not take the forty (40) hours of requested PTO, the employee's pay will be reduced by forty (40) hours on the next payroll. The number of whole hours that may be requested for cash-out will be determined by the employee and will be limited only by the employee's choice and the conditions previously stated in this section.
